

The Great Pagoda

POTTER
RAPER
PARTNERSHIP

Project Summary

To enable public access to this grade I listed Great Pagoda designed by Sir William Chambers completed in the spring of 1762, giving magnificent views over The Royal Gardens at Kew. The Pagoda required to be restored and installed with modern equipment for safe use of this magnificent structure by the public.

PRP Responsibilities

Full Quantity Surveying services from initial feasibility estimates through selective tendering, reporting on tenders, financial management on site and final account agreement.

Client Name
The Trustees of The Royal Botanic
Kew Gardens

Project Location
Kew Gardens, London

Service Provided
Quantity Surveying

Accommodation Created
Public viewing enabled to top level

Contract Value
£450,000

Contract Period
3 Months

Completion Date
April 2007

Contract Type
GC Works
Measured Term Contract

Special Features
Grade I Listed Monument
conserved and upgraded to enable safe public access to the 10th Floor

Main Contractor
A A Knight (builders) Ltd

Project Team

Partner In Charge
Simon Daniels, MRICS Dip Proj Man (RICS)
e: simon.daniels@prp.gb.com

Senior Surveyor
Ross Sinclair, MRICS Dip Bldg Cons (RICS)
e: ross.sinclair@prp.gb.com

Beckenham
London
Colchester
London
Julco House
26-28 Great Portland Street
London
W1W 8QT
t: 020 7436 5005
f: 020 7436 5115

L8882